Congratulations "PJ"!!

We are all so very proud of you! Seems like only yesterday you were my little baby boy. And now you are growing up to be such a fine young man.

Make the most of your school years, as time goes by so fast. Believe in yourself, as much as we all believe in you! Make wonderful friendships and memories you can cherish for a lifetime.

We will always be here to support you, in making your dreams a reality!

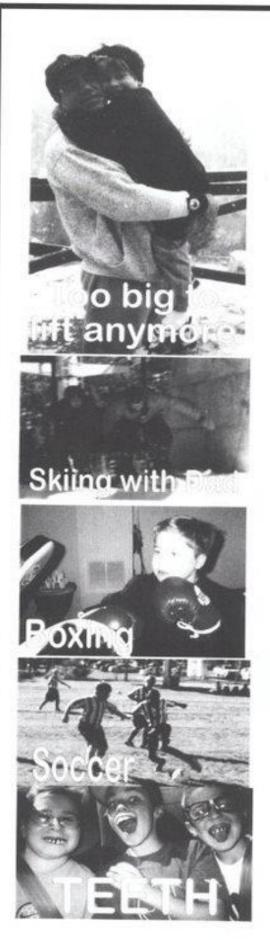

"My Child"

I want to thank you Lord For bringing my child to me. To you my prayers have poured and you have heard my plea. Everyone needs a friend Someone to hold and love But it surely will depend on the guidance from above. I'll listen to your thoughts and fears and support your life long dreams. I'll wipe your heartfelt tears and surely mend your seams I know you'll be content, with my love that is so pure, for you my child are heaven sent. This I know for sure. Night and day for you I prayed, and answered was my request. For you, nothing I will trade and I'll always do my best. I love you' "Dad"

"PATH"

Lord, I can now see A path is before me I knew not before How was to endure The trials in life My days filled with strife Until you placed your hand and I took a stand To abide by your law and then I saw The change in me my worries set free A healing light to warm me at night My mind is clear with you so near I always feel as I want to kneel Before you Lord my tears have poured Down my face when touched by your grace For you are my Lord I have truth for a sword I've humbled my ways to enlighten my days Thank you so much for being my crutch Through thick and thin I will have you within AMEN

P.J. Good Luck in High School From the whole staff at "PAT on the BACK"

Dear Chase,

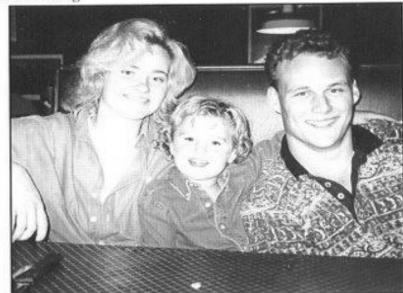

You have so quickly grown from our little brother to a wonderful young man, along the way always remaining a joyous treasure. We have shared swordfights, tickle wars, scary movies, dancing on peanut shells, pool volleyball, and countless laughs and hugs. You have always been your own person with strong values and ideals. Keep the course that has led you this far, and keep your eyes on the limitless measure of your potential. We are very proud of you and we love you very much.

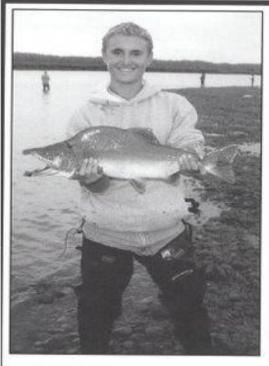

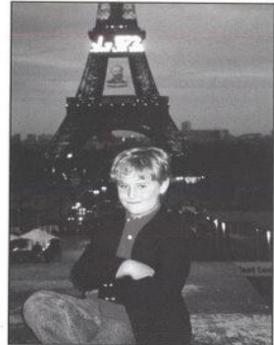

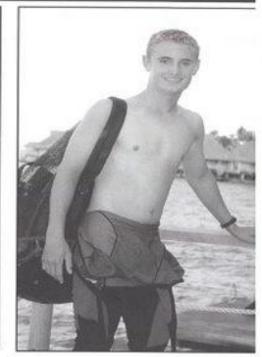

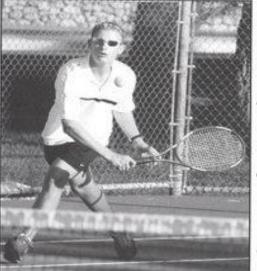

Wow!! You are such an awesome young man. It is amazing to us that you have always far exceeded our expectations. We are truly proud and grateful to be your parents. We know great things lie ahead for you.

Continue to chart your course and set the goals your heart desires!

Be BOLD!

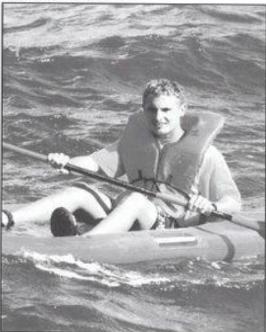

Never be afraid of uncharted waters, but live life to the fullest.

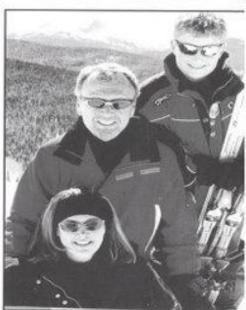

Meet each new experience with joy and anticipation.

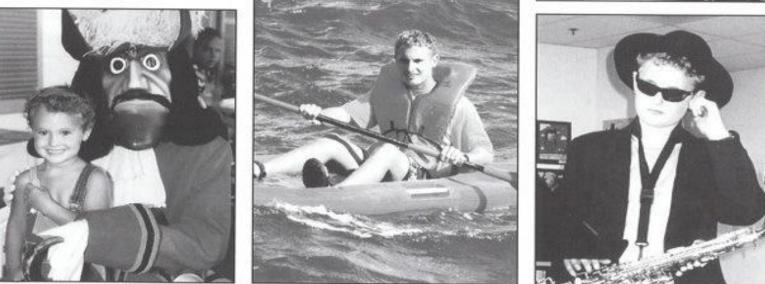

Above all, enjoy the ride!!!!!

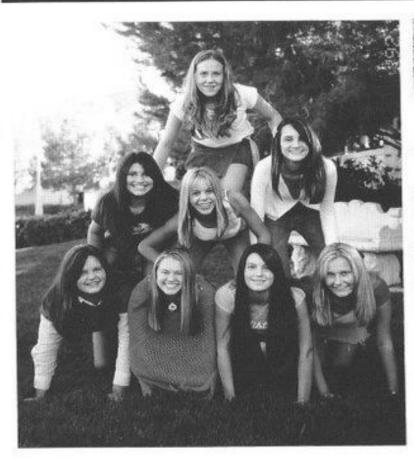

We are always here for you.

ALI,

YOU GO GIRL

Congratulations on your Graduation from the LVDS.

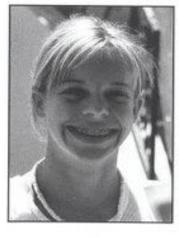

Have a great time at Gorman.

Love, Dad, Mom, Sam & Mac

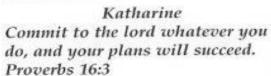

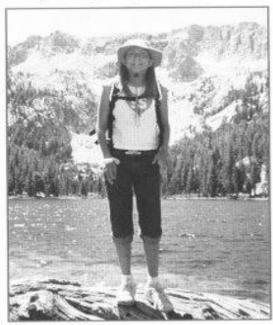

Ten years at Las Vegas Day School! What a wonderful time you have had growing, maturing, learning, making friends and becoming the lovely, kind and caring person you are. Congratulations on all your accomplishments, successes and hard work!

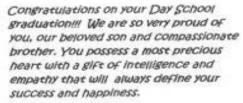

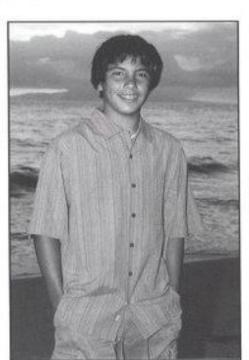

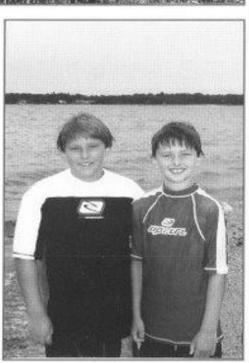

Congratulations Spencer!

As we watch you grow into an independent young adult and so enthusiastically embrace all of the challenges of school and life, you make us very proud.

We are so blessed.

John,
Through all your many stages and all the more to come, we couldn't be more proud to have you as our son.

We love you,
Congratulations,

Jesse,

You are growing into a fine young man. Your hard work and dedication will take you far in life.

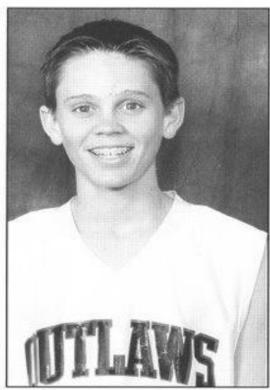

We love you and are very proud of all of your achievements.

Remember " Don't ever stand under the rim with your back turned."

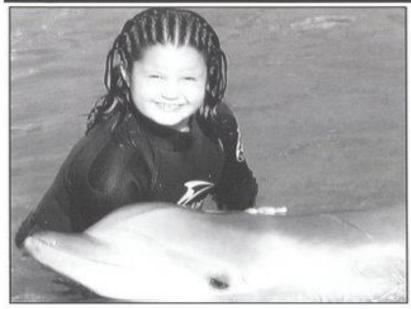

Love, Mom, Dad, and Casey

Carley Sisolak

I am so proud of all that you have accomplished, I take even greater pride in "Who you have become." You are smart, generous, kind, compassionate, loving and beautiful.

As you pursue your dreams and reach for the stars, keep your feet firmly planted on the ground.

Dear Elizabeth,

From the moment you were born, you were a "dream" come true, You have made all of us so proud of you.

You have always made us smile and laugh, even when your first word was a "shock"

From then on you have learned many things, like telling people watching time "by the clock".

Thank you for everything you have accomplished to make us proud,

But please always continue to be yourself and not follow the crowd.

It is truly amazing that you are fourteen and the time has gone by so fast,

But always remember to live in the moment and not in the past.

Try to remember that it only takes a minute, to share, to listen, to help or do a good deed,

Doing those things are what it really means to succeed.

We know there are times when you will be unsure and use your "little voice".

But we have confidence in you that you will make the best choice.

Remember to laugh, smile, sing and share good fun with all you meet,

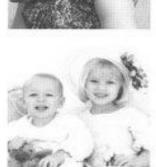

Because when "you are surrounded by a lot of positive support", you can't be beat.

As long as you always try to give your all and try your best, Destiny and God will take care of the rest.

May all your dreams and wishes come true, We all love you so very much, and wish the very best for you.

Love, Mom ,Dad, Charlie, Bobby , family and friend's.

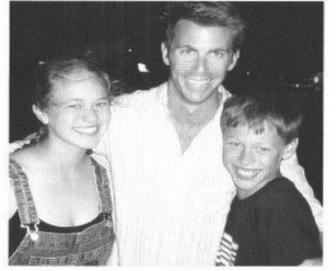

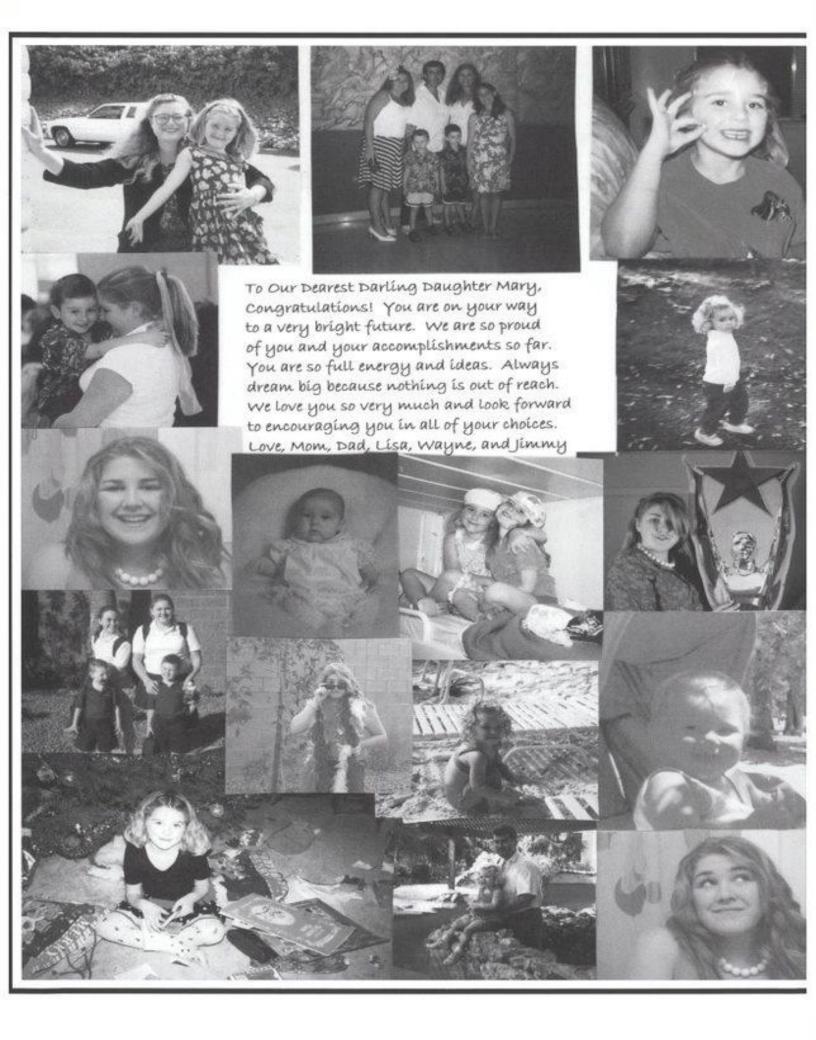

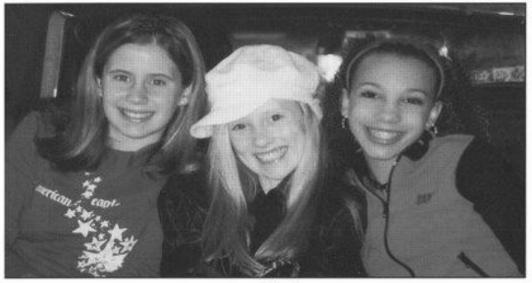

Kori,

The world is a better place with you in it. The fun began when you were born. Then our lives changed for the better when you came to live with us. How exciting it has been to be part of your life and watch you become a beautiful and compassionate young lady. Keep smiling and the world is yours.

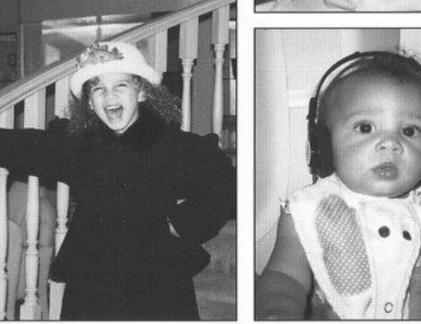

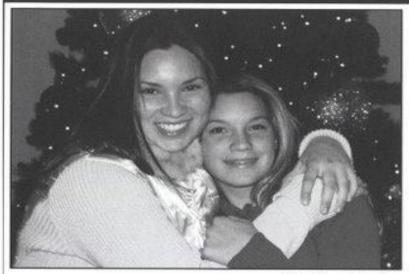

Grandma & Grandpa

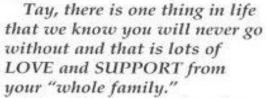

To Our Tayler,

The day you were born was one of the happiest days of our lives. You were the most beautiful baby girl we had ever seen and most of all, you were ours!

We will always be here for you TODAY, TOMORROW and FOREVER... You will always be our TAY, MAY, FAY...

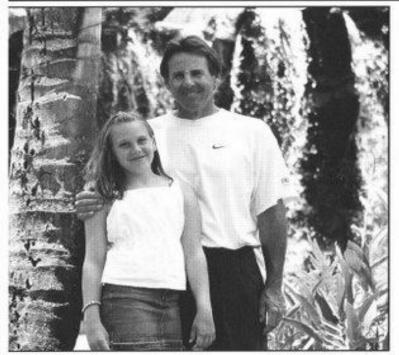

Love Forever Mom, Dad, Randel Kolten, & Family

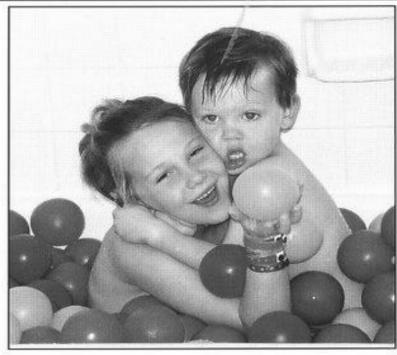

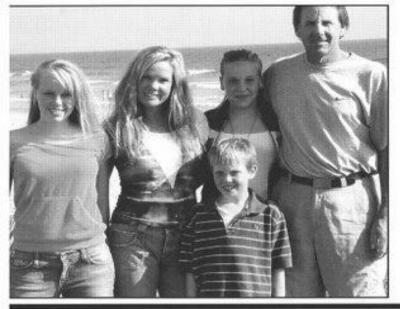

Your Sweet heart and kindness will take you anywhere you wish to go. We will never forget all your accomplishments and successes over the years. We are so proud of you !!!!!! Your truest qualtities will reveal themselves in everything that you grace with your presence.

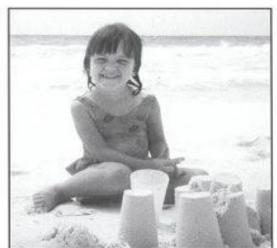

Emily,

We are proud of you and all that you have achieved. You are the light of our lives, and your loving and warm spirit fills our hearts. We believe in you and all the goals you will achieve. We applaud your vivacious spirit and love the person you've grown to be.
You rock Emily!!! We love you.

Sabrina, You have been the most wonderful daughter, granddaughter, niece & friend, the best baby, toddler, and now young lady. You have shined in school and have made everyone so proud of you! Now you are about to enter a very exciting four years of high school where we know you will continue to grow, shine, impress, and delight us all. Enjoy your next adventure.

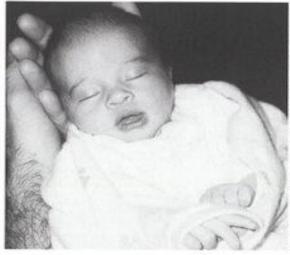

Narayan
You have been forced to deal with things in life that most people don't have to deal with until they are adults; however, you take it in stride and make all of us proud. You are a fine young man. Keep all of your wonderful qualities; it will take you far in life. Work hard, be honest and kind, and always follow your dreams.

Love, Mom, Ashok, Grandmom and all of your family

Dear Jessica,

Always the comedian, charmer, independent thinker, you are the light of our lives! Your insight and honesty continually amaze us. We are so proud to be your parents; from the day you were born you have been a wonderful daughter and travel companion. Remember, life's journey is a progression of small steps. Keep enjoying and learning all that you can at each step - don't fear the next step and don't try to skip any steps - and you will have a fantastic future! And if you have an occasional stumble, that's OK too, because we, plus all of your aunts, uncles, godparents, grandparents, cousins, and friends will always love and support you.

"When you get the choice to sit it out or dance, we hope you dance."

Love always, Mom and Dad

Jessie Marie-

You make me laugh every day, you make me proud every minute, you make me love every second. There is no greater bond than between two sisters; how lucky I am to have a sister like you. You have grown from a little girl that searched through my purse to find makeup, to a beautiful young lady I can share dreams, fears, secrets, and clothes with. I remember the day I prayed that God would send me a sister, and five years later there you were! You are the biggest blessing in my life. I love you...I win! Meggie

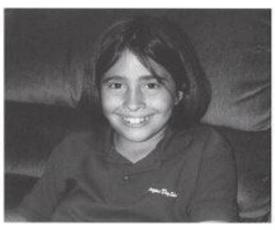

Congratulations on finishing 8th grade! Who's getting all grown up? Jessica is, that's who! Next year you'll be a Freshman...good luck with that.

Love,

Your big brother

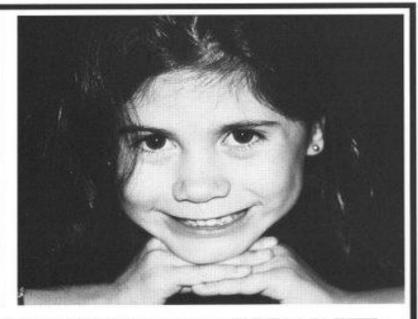

Mariah:

As you think back on your years at the Las Vegas Day School, we are certain that you will have many fond memories of your teachers, friends and fun-filled days. You will look back on your seasons of soccer, basketball, volleyball, cross-country and the various other sports that you enjoyed. You will also remember art club and the other activities that allowed you to pursue your other interests. You will also carry with you the fine education that the Day School has brought to you. This is what yearbooks are for - to remember, reflect and bring back smiles as you recall these wonderful times.

We have watched you grow over these past nine years at the Day school – as a student, an athlete, an artist, a daughter, and a person. You have brought much joy and pride to our lives, and we know that your finest moments lie ahead of you. Stay who you are, and enjoy all that will come your way. You are the best!

Michael,

Where has the time gone? Seems like just yesterday you were running up and down the basketball courts at the Boys and Girls Club with all your 1st grade LVDS buddies! And now you're graduating! WOW! How proud we are of you! The leaderhip, excitement, determination, and winning attitude you consistently display on the athletic field are really representive of the absolutely awesome young man you've become off the field! You are truly a blessing from God and we know He has a wonderful plan for you as you leave the Day School.

Congratulations on your graduation and, as we have become accustomed to hearing from the stands, "Way to go Mikey!"
